Patient Responsibility

It is the responsibility of the patient to be sure that you have at least a six month check up with us, whether reminders are sent out or not. Women over 40 yrs old are to have yearly mammograms. Men are to be sure that yearly PSA's are done. Blood work is to be done on a yearly basis unless otherwise advised by Dr. Daulat.

The office policy for prescription refills is 48 hours on working days. No new prescription will be given unless the physician sees you first. The best way to do a prescription refill is to have your pharmacy contact our office by fax or e-prescribed. Please request your refill at least five working days before it is due to prevent running out of medication.
No Control Substance or Antibiotics will be called in or faxed.

If your laboratory results required follow up the designated personal will instruct you over the phone. You will not be notified of normal laboratory results, you may call for results.
